

The Association of Medical Service Providers - AMSP

History

AMSP is the Premier National Association of Independent Service and Products Providers to the Healthcare Technology Industry. Our large pool of modality specialists provide for lower costs and higher quality services for our customers throughout the U.S. AMSP was founded in the mid-1980s by group of Mid-Atlantic Region Independent Service Organizations (ISO) to share technical assistance and expertise while maintaining geographical service areas. Members continue to meet to discuss shared challenges and opportunities. AMSP has remained focused on ensuring to provide value to members nationwide as well as to aid in enhancing member organizations' value to their customers.

Goals

Today, AMSP continues to grow membership to provide members support by:

- Sharing expertise and technical information
 - Remaining current with regulatory compliance
 - Sharing best practices
 - Enhancing member organizations offerings to their customers
